

The Oasis

Saturday Oct. 10. 1903.

Metal Quotations.

Following are the market quotations on metals for today, as reported by A. Pellegrin, U. S. assayer in Nogales, Arizona.

Copper, (E. Cathode) per lb 13.
Lead, per 100 lbs. $4.50
Silver, per oz., 59½ cts.
Pesos (Bullion value), 47
Mex. Dol. (local) 45-47
Value of U. S. Dollar, 2.13 Mex.
Mexico City Exchange, 2-194

NOGALES NOTES.

Interesting Items Gathered Around the Line Cities.

Spectacles and Eye Glass, at all prices, at E. J. Pellegrin's. *

Dick Halke, of the Arcade, went to Tucson this morning.

The cakes, cookies and pies that Sturmer makes are unbeatable. *

Dr. P. Hertigan of Carbo, Sonora, is registered at the Brickwood to-day.

Spanish lessons by Miss Amparo Mendez. Calle Arizpe No. 45, Nogales, Sonora. *

A. H. Weeks, of the American House, Magdalena, is a visitor in town to-day.

H. W. Squires, the Oro Blanco mining man, was over on a business visit yesterday.

Try a loaf of that delicious cream bread of Sturmer's. You will never ask for any other kind. *

Sheriff and Mrs. Thomas Turner were visitors in Tucson during the early part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jaeger, of the Montezuma, were in Tucson Tuesday taking in the big circus.

This has been court week at Tucson, and a number of our citizens have been in that city doing jury duty.

R. G. Brady, president of the Brady-Levin Commission Co., was a business visitor in Nogales on Thursday.

For comfortable and elegant furnished rooms go to the Hotel Cazabon, opposite S. P. depot, Nogales, Arizona. *

Stanley Pearce, the prominent young mining engineer, was registered at the Montezuma yesterday, from Magdalena.

Gents' and boys' clothing and underwear, stylish, cheap and durable at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez. *

Rancher George Atkinson of Calabasas was a visitor at Nogales for a few hours on Monday, purchasing ranch supplies.

"The American Lady," the most elegant and stylish shoe made. Sold only at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez. *

Mr. F. C. Garrettson, of the Chas. Butters Company, La Colorada, and wife, were guests at the Montezuma on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Perry were visitors in town Thursday from the Sahuaripa district of Sonora, where the gentleman has mining interests.

C. R. Brown, accountant of the Nogales Copper Company, went to Hermosillo this morning on business for the company.

For good, substantial service wear Hamilton, Brown & Co.'s "Patrol Shoe," sold at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez. *

D. J. Shea who is interested with Con O'Keefe in Sonora mines, arrived from Jerome last night and left for Tubutama this morning.

"The American Gentleman" the finest and handsomest shoe for gentlemen's wear, at the Red House, Ramon Vasquez. *

C. M. Burkhalter, division freight and passenger agent of the Southern Pacific Company, was at Nogales Thursday, rustling trade for that line.

Joe Brown spent several days last week at the different mining camps in the Oro Blanco districts in the interests of his firm, Roy & Titcomb.

Juan Hurst, superintendent of the Santa Vibiana mines in the Magdalena district, arrived from camp Wednesday evening for a few day's rest in town.

Mr. Oscar Gebler returned Monday evening from Magdalena, where he has been engaged for several weeks past in fitting the new residence of Colonel Kosterlitzky.

Pablo Soto, store manager for the Hays Consolidated Mining Co., was in town Wednesday for a short visit with his family, returning south to the camp the next morning.

All the same old goods at the new place—MacBrayer whiskey, Favorita cigars, etc.—at Frank Irvine's on International street, facing the line. Nogales, Sonora. *

Doctor Bayly had an awning erected at his Montezuma drug store on Monday, and now that he can keep the sun away from his goods, has put in a very attractive window display.

Don't forget our store for elegant, appropriate wedding presents, sterling silver or solid gold, engraving, plain or fancy, free on articles bought here. E. J. Pellegrin. 2t.

Mr. H. Hayes, of the Hayes Mining Co., arrived from Washington D. C. last evening, and, accompanied by General Bell and Al Conard, left this morning for the big camp at Pinitos.

For Rough and Dressed Lumber of all classes. Doors, Windows, Door Frames, Window Frames, and all kinds of Building Materials, go to William G. Dumont, Patagonia, Arizona. *

John Q. Adams Jr., of La Colorada, arrived last evening from Los Angeles, where he has been spending the last few weeks enjoying a little recreation. He proceeded south this morning.

Colonel Allen T. Bird, THE OASIS man has been out of town for the last three weeks on an extended trip into the interior of Sonora on mining business. He is expected home sometime during the coming week.

When you want a fine La Violeta or La Favorita cigar, a glass of old MacBrayer whiskey, or a dram of excellent Bacanora, go to Frank Irvine's on International street facing the line, Nogales, Sonora. *

On account of New Mexico Territorial Fair to be held at Albuquerque, tickets will be on sale to that point from Nogales and return, at $20.90 for the round trip, October 11th to 16th inclusive. H. Jordan, Agent.

J. T. Tener, the prominent Magdalena mining man and merchant, was at Nogales last Saturday, leaving Sunday morning for Bisbee, where was called on important mining business. He returned to Magdalena Thursday morning.

Mr. J. H. Winters, formerly connected with the Southwestern Commercial Company, has accepted a position with I. Burgoon and will be very pleased to see his former patrons at the store that is the "Outfitter for all Mankind."

The Nogales friends of U. S. Attorney and Mrs. Frederick S. Nave will be pleased to learn, that they are the happy parents of a son and heir, who was born at Tucson on Tuesday of last week. The new arrival was christened Frederick G. Nave.

Juan Arizmendez, who has been manager of the Boston Store for several years, has severed his connection with that firm and is now located at the International Store, where he will be pleased to have his many friends and former patrons call and see him.

Quite a number of our residents went to Tucson last Tuesday to attend the big Ringling Brothers' circus which exhibited there that day. They returned home well pleased with the performance, reporting it as one of the best ever given in the old pueblo.

Special Deputy Collector of Customs, Earl L. Griswold and family, returned home on Thursday evening's International from a month's vacation at Los Angeles and the beaches. They report having had a glorious time and are greatly benefitted by the trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Farish and Miss Farish of Denver, Colorado, were registered at the Montezuma last night. Mr. Farish is one of the best known mining experts in the country and is a recognized authority on all kinds of mining properties.

Mr. W. F. Marleau returned home Sunday evening from a several days visit in Douglas, where he has some valuable real-estate holdings. Mr. Marleau was quite surprised at the way that town has developed since his previous visit and says that if the present rapid increase in the population is kept up for a few months longer that Douglas will soon be the largest town in Arizona.

Jimmie Schultz, who had his right ankle severely sprained while playing ball at Magdalena three weeks ago, has sufficiently recovered to allow of his resuming his duties at the Parlor Saloon. It will be some time, however, before he regains his usual activity.

Mr. T. R. Jones, the newly appointed superintendent of the Tucson division of the Southern Pacific, visited Nogales Monday evening, arriving here in his private car, San Carlos, which was attached to the regular passenger train. He returned to Tucson the following morning.

It is reported that Dr. Aguilar, the prominent physician of Nogales, Sonora, is lying at the point of death in a Los Angeles sanitarium. This will be very bad news to the doctor's many Nogales friends as he was generally respected and admired by all who knew him.

The important social event of the coming week will be the wedding ceremony of Charles Chester Kingsley to Miss Katherine Alice Christ, which will be performed next Thursday evening at eight o'clock by the Rev. Joseph McConnell in the new St. Andrews Episcopal church.

Sam Leeker, of the El Paso store, says that he has such a large amount of merchandise on the road that he will not be able to put it all in his store when it arrives, and that he will have a sale in a week or two which will completely outclass any the town has ever seen.

D. J. Alberga, a well known San Francisco drummer, who travels in Arizona and New Mexico for the largest cracker and candy factory on the coast, was drumming business in Nogales yesterday and secured a number of large orders for holiday shipments from the local merchants.

The Southwestern Commercial Company has a very tastily and appetizingly arranged display of delicatessen goods in one of their big show windows, which attracts the attention of the passing throng. It was designed by Jimmie Cervera, one of the clerks in the grocery department.

Pedro Torres, a young man well and favorably known in the line cities, has opened a very swell saloon this week on Elias street. Nogales, Sonora, which he has named "Sentinela de la Frontera." Pete will handle nothing but the very best of wines, liquors, special brands of Mexican cigars, cigarettes etc., and will be very pleased to have his many friends drop around and have a smile with him.

Blank Books and Stationery.

LARGEST STOCK OF

Watches, Clocks, Silverware,
Jewelry, Blank Books and
Stationery in the Southwest.

OFFICE SUPPLIES
A SPECIALTY.

MAIL ORDERS
PROMPTLY FILLED

SONORA NEWS CO.

Nogales. - - - Arizona.